

ALBERTA CITIES MUST BUILD SEPTIC TANKS

Legislation in Sight Which Will Stop
Edmonton and Strathcona Dumping
Sewage into the Saskatchewan—
Ravages of Typhoid at Down River
Points Alarming.

Both Edmonton and Strathcona will shortly have to establish septic tanks in connection with the sewerage system now in progress of construction in each municipality. This will be a result of the new health bill to be brought before the legislature now in session.

Up to the present time there was nothing in the plans of the Edmonton system now in course of construction to show the location of a septic tank at the terminus of the Red Rock sewer, but Mayor Griesbach yesterday said that the matter had been under consideration by the engineers and it is probable that it will be necessary to install one before the city is completed.

Strathcona has as yet given no formal consideration to the question, but that town will not be affected by the legislation that is shortly to be enacted.

At the present time the sewerage of both towns is dumped into the Saskatchewan and the ravages of typhoid fever have prevailed to an alarming extent on the shore front between here and Fort Saskatchewan, the mining camps in that area being the greatest sufferers.

At present there have been twenty cases of fever with six deaths during the past winter. Such a condition is alarming and creates the necessity of the proposed legislation.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' DAY OF THE LEGISLATURE

The session of the legislature yesterday smacked of business. All the members were in their places except the leader of the opposition and the minister of public works. It was private members' day and they evinced a considerable thirst for knowledge and placed a number of questions on the order paper for Thursday.

A number of bills were advanced a stage. The bill respecting the Elks club of Edmonton passed its second reading. In speaking to the bill Mr. Brown (Athabasca) said that he had already had over 300 members of the club and that he was going to get more men of the club, and the bill was drawn up to be subject to the control of the attorney general.

Mr. Rosenfeld (Wetaskinaw) wanted information. Was the club composed of people of Elks? Mr. Simmon (Edmonton) advised the member for Wetaskinaw to join, and attended the work and aims of the club. The bill was referred to the committee on private bills.

The bill respecting the Diamond C. company, introduced by Mr. Simmon (Edmonton) passed the second reading and was referred to the railway committee of the house. The members are asking leave to construct a spur line from the company's mines in township ten, range twenty-one, west of 4th, to the point of connection of the Crow's Nest branch of the C. P. R.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.
The speaker left the chair and the House took up the consideration of the bill to incorporate the Elks Club of Calgary. Deputy speaker left the chair to press his objection against clause three of the bill as not in keeping with the spirit of the act. He called the attention of the house that last year it was decided by the legislature to make all clubs seeking incorporation to conform to a uniform standard bill. This

WROTE DOWN CONVERSATIONS

More Revelations of the Listening Board in Bell Central Office—No Privacy in Toronto Telephone System—Girls Refuse to Continue the Espionage—Official Listener on the Stand.

Toronto, Feb. 12.—There was evidence before the telephone commission today to show that other officials of the Bell company have had opportunity of overhearing conversations on the line beside the girls at the "listening boards." One of the former operators, Miss Jessie Leckie, whose special duty it had been to overhear conversations and who had finally refused to do such work, was on the stand in the forenoon. She stated that monitors, or employees holding positions above ordinary operators, could, if they desired, make certain connections that would enable them to overhear any private conversation. Some of these monitors were, they heard down in writing. Miss Leckie said she did not care to hear conversations of the wives, and sometimes the girls used bad language. Max, inspector of service, determined what lines should be put on the "listener."

FINAL DISGRACE

None Come to Claim Body of Nellie Fadden who Travelled Primrose Path to Her Terminus.

Winnipeg, Feb. 12.—Nellie Fadden, who died in the cells at the police station on Saturday afternoon, had just got out of Grace hospital, she having been laid up since Christmas. She had left the hospital under the care of a city mission, and went from it to the hotel. She had been discharged from there only on Thursday. The body is still at Gardner's undertaking room awaiting funeral arrangements, but none have claimed it. Some of the social people of the city are trying to give the actress a decent burial and may do so.

INVESTIGATING TORONTO JAILOR

Governor Van Zant of Queen City
Bottle Makes out Case to Show
Specious Charge is Being Tramped up Against Him—Women Appeal in Court to Indignantly Deny Allegations Made.

Toronto, Feb. 12.—At the Van Zant investigation today before Commissioner Judd, of London, several of the ex-prisoners of the jail swore that they had often done repairs on locks for guards with material belonging to the jail. There were also three female witnesses, who all denied statements made by previous witnesses, as to the conduct of the governor of the jail with them, when at jail. Mrs. Perry, of Kingston, especially denied any of the statements respecting this, made by several of the guards. Another witness said that a man named Hood had offered him money to give evidence that Van Zant had patronized the East Elgin hotel, where alleged immorality had taken place, but he refused as he knew that Van Zant was respectable.

Toronto, Feb. 12.—Some whose names were introduced into the inquiry into charges against Governor Van Zant of the Toronto jail, appeared today before Commissioner Judd and entered a general denial to reports of misconduct given in the evidence of the guards and others. The women gave visible proof of annoyance at alleged acts of misbehavior by Governor Van Zant while visiting the jail. An oil traveller related a conversation with John McMillan, the steward, who was said to have denied the removal of the governor. Money was offered for evidence at the time Van Zant was reported to have taken part in the West Elgin election. The repairing of boots for jail leather stock for the guards was spoken of by two former prisoners. Leather for new boots was bought from down town. Governor Van Zant has a long list of witnesses to present to the commissioner and the investigation is likely to drag along some time yet.

Ottawa, January 31.—The Railway Commission made a report today on a bill presented by W. H. McLean, Conservative member for South York, to bring sleeping car companies and telegraph companies under the jurisdiction of the Railway Commission by amendment of the Railway Act.

Mr. McLean contributed to the debate his earnest regret that three transcontinental railway companies were constructing telegraph systems in the West, and said he would prefer to have the telegraph business of the whole western country in the hands of one great company. The people of the West who have had twenty years experience of the control of telegraph business by one great company will probably entertain opinions of their own on the subject of remarkably common with those of the member for South York.

The Minister of Railways said sleeping car companies were already included in the scope of the Railway Act, and that the government had in contemplation an amendment to the Act which would make the purpose of the bill under consideration. "The committee reported the bill with the understanding that it would be dropped if it were when it came before the house."

When the House assembled Mr. Judd presided and the speaker read General that no legislation was necessary to enable the department to extend the postal order to include the carrying of parcels C. O. D. Departmental regulations were necessary, and the advisability of extending the carrying of parcels C. O. D. was suggested as engaging the attention of the government.

The House went into committee to discuss the tariff schedule, and fair progress was made during the afternoon and evening.

RING DOWN CURTAIN ON HOUSE OF LORDS

Day When Peers Will Lose Their Power is in Plain Sight—Commons Cheers Passage in Speech Which Proposes to Discipline Upper House.

London, Feb. 12.—When the House of Commons convened the entrance of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was greeted with universal cheers. The speaker, James Lowther, read the speech from the throne, and the debate on the address in reply was begun. The references in the reading to the Kingston incident and the House of Lords situation were cheered. In the House of Lords, Lord Castletown, Liberal, moved the address in reply to the King's speech and praised the assistance rendered by the American navy at Kingston. He also declared that it was necessary to change the machinery of the House of Lords.

CANADIAN PACIFIC PROVES ITSELF A BULLY

Arrest of Farmers and Merchants of Swift Current Who Contended Canadian Coal When Railway Failed to Deliver Fuel—Citizens Indignant.

Swift Current, Sask. Feb. 12.—The local agent of the C. P. R., acting under instructions, has issued summonses for seven local prominent citizens and local farmers who helped themselves to coal from a car on the siding here when an engine could not obtain from the local coal merchant, and when they were entirely without coal during a temperature of thirty-five below zero. Among those summoned to appear next Thursday are two of the leading merchants, the Smiths, of this city, and the owners of the wealthiest farms of the district. Indignation runs high among the citizens.

creasing the duty on wool, and referred to this morning when the tariff was placed before the tariff commission by a delegation of wool growers from Southern Alberta.

In reply, Mr. Fielding pointed out that the duty on raw wool could not be increased without also placing heavy duties on woolen goods. Otherwise, the Canadian woolen factories, having to pay more for raw material while competing on the same terms as at present with imported goods, would be driven out of business. This matter was not an even one for the tariff commission. While the wool growers delegation had asked for a higher duty on raw wool the farmers generally, and particularly those of the West, had protested against the imposition of a corresponding duty on woolen goods. Yet with such a duty the wool growers a higher duty on raw wool would cripple the Canadian factories.

Mr. Foster thought this was an extreme view. He was sure the duty necessary on woolen goods would not be more than 35 per cent. The exporters did not propose this high duty and he did not see how it could be more than 35 per cent. He urged that there must be no stepping at the "half-way house," and wanted a duty on woolen goods which would not be done so long as the Canadian manufacturer was threatened from having any article of woolen goods anywhere outside of Canada.

Mr. Knowles, representing the wool growers, said that the woolgrowers were not against the demand of Mr. Taylor for more protection for the wool manufacturers, said that when the hon. member for North Lanark makes any statement with regard to the woolen trade I defer to his superior knowledge, but I desire to place before the committee a view

SUNSHINE MAKES A SMILING LAND

Lethbridge Reports Snow all Gone,
Cattle Fattening up, Building Operations in Full Swing, Farmers Thrashing Last Year's Crop out of the Stack and Coal Mines Resuming Full Shifts.

Lethbridge, Feb. 12.—This part of Southern Alberta, after a week of splendid weather, has practically recovered the normal. Trains are running on time, the cattle are fattening up on the withered but fastening range grass, and building operations have been resumed with a swing. The snow is but memory, and the water is rapidly being soaked up on the ranges. So far as the cattle are concerned, it is now held there is a possible combination of adverse circumstances during the balance of the nominal winter can do them any damage. Reports from various mines in the district show also a return of the normal, more or less, and both the raising of coal and its movement on the railways is being accelerated.

The country mines suffered most from the severe weather, but Taber and other points report an increased activity, and the mine will resume full shift at once.

Spring thrashing, which is something unique in Alberta, is starting in some districts, which is due to the early snow. Levi Parker, of Masrath, reports that thrashing started yesterday, about one quarter of the crop having been left stacked. Cardston, Raymond, Spring Coulee, and other points report quite a percentage of grain still in the stack and there may be some thousands of acres of it in Southern Alberta. The reports are that the grain has suffered to deterioration, which scores an other notch for Alberta wheat. Spring Coulee reports a considerable quantity of wheat not stacked, which shows only a trace of discoloration. Some fields of standing oats were sold in the hand, because the cattle into the crop when other fodder was not to be had, but these farmers who kept their cattle apparently have suffered no loss.

A big deal in coal property was concluded yesterday when the C. P. R. Coal Company sold its interests and shares to the C. M. & N. Co. of Toronto, financially.

As the money has no been paid yet, yet the principles in the deal is to make any a statement for sale. It is understood, however, that the C. P. R. has now agreed to sell its interest in the C. P. R. Coal Company to the C. M. & N. Co. of Toronto, financially.

The price is not announced, but it is reported to be $2,000,000. The owners of the property are the C. P. R. and a British, the former owning 61 per cent. and J. B. Macdonald, Conservative.

Mr. W. F. McLean read a letter setting a proposal of an American congressman for reciprocity in coal and iron ore in the country. He declined to endorse or repudiate the letter. He was not apparently prepared to advocate a duty on coal from the United States, and the development of the coal mining industry. A reason for his reticence was that the province of Ontario has no coal, and if the coal mining industry were encouraged by the tariff it would be at the expense of Ontario and to the benefit of the other provinces.

What he did want, however, was a tariff on coal from the United States, and he declared that the tariff would be at the expense of Ontario and to the benefit of the other provinces.

THE RELIEF OF SWAN LAKE

After Nine Days Tie-Up Track is Cleared and Train Reaches Town—Snowplough, Locomotive, Caboose and Boarding Car in the Ditch—Train
Ran 50 Miles an Hour on Unbalanced Track.

Swan Lake, Man., Feb. 12.—After nine days of C. P. R. is again open to Winnipeg. A passenger train from the east, the first since January 30th, reached here Saturday night. The storm of February 1 blocked the branch up badly, but the wreck of a train last Sunday afternoon, was responsible for the long delay. It was stated here by members of the crew that at the time of the accident the train was running over fifty miles an hour, a speed which, when the poor condition of the track on this branch is considered, is highly dangerous. The tender of the locomotive left the rails, followed by the second engine, a boarding car, and two cabooses.

After bumping along the ties for about 200 feet the cabooses and boarding car rolled down an embankment into about twelve feet of snow. It is probable the great depth of the snow that saved the lives of the thirty men on board. Beyond a few scratches received by two of the workmen no one was hurt.

LANCOT NOMINEE

Vacancy in Richelieu for the Dominion House.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—Adelaide Lancot was today chosen Liberal candidate for the House of Commons to contest the vacancy in Richelieu, by the appointment of Mr. Brunson to a judgeship. The convention was held in Ruel and three names were submitted but only one first ballot Mr. Lancot received 61 out of 67 votes.

Harrold Co. of Britain, the latter will fall into the hands of the law.

THE COAL COMPANY SELLS ITS PROPERTY

A big deal in coal property was concluded yesterday when the C. P. R. Coal Company sold its interests and shares to the C. M. & N. Co. of Toronto, financially.

MILESTONE FARMERS RAMPANT

Going After the Canadian Pacific With a Sharp Stick—Claim That 600,
000 Bushels of Grain Offered For Shipment Only 100,000 Has Been Moved—Call on Government to Take Action.

Edmonton, Sask., Feb. 12.—The shippers of grain, including many farmers, of Milestone and surrounding country, attended a mass meeting at this place this afternoon for the purpose of considering the conditions relative to the ore shortage and to memorializing the government to adopt stringent measures to relieve the situation. After a stormy session which savored more of an indignation meeting than anything else, a committee was appointed to secure a sentiment of retaliation against the railway company, in neighboring towns, and to adopt such measures as would be necessary to bring the situation to the attention of the government. The committee also decided to send a letter to the terminals. Of the 600,000 bushels of grain to be shipped from Milestone and surrounding country, only 100,000 bushels have been shipped. The banks in consequence have been overburdened with the call loans and have practically gone out of business for funds to meet the demands of the farmers who are unable to realize money from their grain. To say the least, the situation appears ominous and may have a serious effect upon the future of the district.

VILLAIN STILL AT LARGE.
Brandon Police Looking for Brute
Who Made Assault on Young Lady.

Brandon, Man., Feb. 12.—The police so far have not been able to apprehend the villain who made the assault on the young lady on Louise avenue last Friday night. One man was arrested on suspicion but he was able to prove his innocence beyond a doubt, and he was allowed to depart. The police have not given up the hunt by any means and are confident that the criminal will fall into the hands of the law.

Harrold Co. of Britain, the latter will fall into the hands of the law.

GOV'T. MAY PURCHASE FORT 'PHONE SYSTEM

The latest phase of the Fort Saskatchewan telephone difficulty is the probable purchase of both the Fort city and the trunk system by the Alberta government. This morning Hon. Mr. Cushing was in conference with Mayor Griesbach and it is reported around the city hall that this matter was under discussion. The mayor when seen today would not present give any particulars as to what arrangement had been reached between the parties.

It is understood that the valuation of the plant will be made by a representative of the city and another from the government.

This solution of the difficulty was brought to the attention of the premier by Mayor McAvoy, Coombs, and Montgomery and W. A. D. Lees, who, under the guidance of their member, Frank Walker, waited upon him on Monday. Upon the return to the city of the minister of public works the matter was brought to his attention and he has taken immediate action in conferring with the city authorities.

PALL MALL TALKS SENSE.

Seriously Considers Reminder That Federation is Possible Only by Fiscal Union.

London, Feb. 12.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Laurier is reported as saying yesterday that there could be no imperial union except with a central fiscal administration or absolute free trade within the empire. His remarks, however, are important for their reminder that no kind of imperial organization can be effective which is brought about by ignoring the fiscal problem."

FROM DAY TO DAY*ST. VALENTINE'S EVE.

"Five dollars per," the florist said.
"Of course you'll find a dozen tonight."
The young man smiled a sickly smile.
Walked bravely up and paid the freight.

And in this odorous flowery mid—
The choicest of all valentines—
He hid a fair, white page wherein
Were carefully inscribed these lines:

"My dear, fair maid, the ardent vow
The amorous glance, the dulcet lay
Of such sad, sighing, love-sick swains
As send their roses red in May.

"But be my own fair valentine,
Nor think thou ever need'st be
Of lover folk who send to thee
These roses red in February!"

Stuart Dunlop.

WINTER FAIRYLAND AT RIDEAU HALL.

People who have revelled in the beauties of a winter festival in the handsome grounds surrounding the rather shabby residence of Canada's Governor General—and as well people who have not—must appreciate this graphic picture of the out-door entertainment there at night during the recent competition.

It is taken from the columns of the Citizen:

One tiny orb of light in the darkness at Rideau Hall entrance and a policeman on duty guided the foot-steps of the guests of Their Excellencies, the young actors from Winnipeg, the musicians from Quebec and St. John's, the ambitious representatives from Hamilton and Halifax, and the Ottawans, the invited guests of the Governor General of the Dominion, all eager for pleasure even though the fate of the coveted trophies hung in the midst of a week's hence. That little light at the Sussex street gate served its purpose, but the dazzle of the grounds further on came to the eyes with a startling glare.

It was a delightful scene. In they came through the Sussex street gate and by the main entrance, old and young, all dressed in heavy furs, for the greater part of the entertainment was out of doors—logganging and skating and tramping from one spectacle to another. The long walk was deep in darkness. The big pines acted as a curtain and blotted out all but occasional glimpses of the stage beyond, where the play was to be acted with a quarter thousand characters.

But there came a moment when the curtain of pines seemed to part and of a sudden the spectacular drama was flashed upon the vision. There it all was—the Governor General's "Party." The scene was all the more attractive to the guests for the reason that many of them were strangers to Ottawa. Moreover it was their festival and they entered into it with a delight that was good to see.

The main rink was as hard as glass and over its surface a hundred skaters moved in graceful circles. At the southeast corner, the famous ice palace, this year with many innovations in design and lighting, drew the eyes of admiring guests. Further off, the great toboggan slide loomed up, above the trees, and the lanterns gleamed in countless numbers, very large and bright at the foot of the slide, but seeming to lose themselves among the stars of the sky as the eyes looked toward the top. Then the big cabin near the small rink drew its quota of visitors, who, if they desired, might sip a cup of tea at leisure. The "small rink," as it is called, seemed such an inviting little place with the big trees all about it that it was not long before the skaters had found it out. Two log bonfires made the grounds as bright as day. In one of them over 15 cords of wood was set afire. The Indian tapes, "the real article," over the log cabin, brought many to peer within at the smoking embers of the wood fire, very luxuriously placed there to give it life. Hither and thither the groups went, not in clubs at all, but mingling with their "little trials," and chatting of the week's events with many a complimentary thrown in.

Pathways to this place, pathways to that, &amp; one seemed to look for the path toward home. It might have lasted for a whole night, that big family gathering, but it came to an end as most good things do. Yet long before departing, the guests had an opportunity to meet Their Excellencies, and for a moment with the patron whom they have so much cause to remember. Supper was laid in the curling rink.

The house party consisted of the Governor General and Lady Grey, Lady Sybil, Lady Evelyn, Mr. Arthur Grenfell, Mr. B. Grenfell, Mr. Henry Robinson, Dr. Chabwick, Mr. Langley Mitchell and Mrs. Biggs.

MRS. HARDY'S AT HOME.

Shrove Tuesday in Edmonton this year was reminiscent of "le bon vieux temps," when Mrs. Hardy, the erstwhile lady of the Big House, was again the charming hostess of a large reception in her former home. And not even in the early days of Fort Edmonton, when Franklin and Simpson and Bulwer were of their pleasure in their reception here, was more ideal hospitality extended than that which transformed a modern social function into a delightful occasion, where the old and new highland, the Big House, the seat of northwestern hospitality, has passed away and a magnificent Legislative Building will rise on its site. The spirit of its festivities lived again in the welcome its former mistress extended to her guests yesterday, to old-timers and new comers alike.

About 150 guests were invited by Mrs. Hardy and from four to seven they came in bright, handsome gowns to greet their hosts and felicitate her upon the return to her home so delightfully situated on the cliff-side of Fifth street. Mrs. Hardy, who was assisted by Mrs. Percy Hardy, received her guests in the first drawing room. Mrs. Hardy wore a rich gown of black silk with lace garniture, a cream chiffon tucker and corsage bouquet of sweet peas. Mrs. Percy Hardy was homely gown—dark blue velvet with lace and silver and blue applique trimmings and cream bouquet. Mrs. Harrison and sister of the hostess, wore an attractive gown of silver gray silk with vest and undersleeves of white Valenciennes and rich black lace. Throughout the afternoon the guests were in the conservatory played delightfully the two-roomed house. The honoree was done by Mrs. Edwin, Mrs. Parson and Mrs. Kinnaird, the prettily arranged tea-table came in for much admiration. A wide low bowl of rose-pink carnations and fan-like ferns centred the table while numerous rosette-shaped candles threw a soft glow over the entire affair. The young ladies attending here were Miss Adamson, Miss Alice McNeill, Miss Gladys Macdonald, Miss Somerville and Miss Fyfe. Over 150 guests were present and some of these were Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. McDougall, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Graham (Lavelle), Mrs. Elsie, Mrs. Langworthy (Fort Saskatchewan), Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. Graydon, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Baunfear, Mrs. Barrow, Mrs. Robert Robertson, Mrs. John McDougall Jr., Miss Anderson, Misses Huggins, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss McKenney, Mrs. Gray, and Mrs. McQueen.

SOCIAL.

The following gentlemen had the honor of being invited to dinner at Government House last night: Hon. W. T. Finlay, J. B. Cowell (Clerk of Assembly), W. C. Stannard, M.P.P., P. A. Walker, M.P.P., T. ## SPORT PLAYERS WILL GET SOUVENIRS

Members of Winning Team in Western Canada Baseball League to Receive Appropriate Souvenirs of Victory—President Robinson Will Provide Them—Other Ball Gossip.

The members of the team winning the pennant in the Western Canada league this year will long remember their connection with the Alberta association—unless they happen to fall on extremely evil days and have to resort to dealings with the threshold penny.

President Robinson announces that he will present to each player on the champion, aggregation a handsome souvenir in the form of a watch chain of metal, cross design, the emblem of which will be of gold with a baseball screw a better up for action and the other in similar pose—and on the reverse side will be engraved the player's name, the team he performed with in the Western Canada Baseball League, season 1907. He has ordered seven medals.

This is an entirely new departure for league leaders, but it is just one of the tokens that show that President Robinson is having no stone thrown to make the league a success and so, if possible, make the game a little more attractive for the better class of ball players.

CITY LEAGUE'S WIND UP

The executive of the city league at last night's meeting made arrangements for the games in the second round for the Taylor-Morris medals. After some discussion it was decided to allow only those teams who had at least one victory to their credit to go into the final series of games, which means the first and second rounds will be played on even footing with the winners in the double head start. This will leave three teams left in the running, and a draw will be made, and the aggregation securing the bye will figure in the final game of the series. It has not been decided whether the final will be a sudden death affair or two out of three.

The league will get off on the 14th at the opening double header, and if there are two final games will come off for a stage of one of these games.
